ANNUAL CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING EVENT

Please join in the annual Christmas Tree Lighting event that will be held in the lobby of the Main Police Station, 270 South Stone Avenue, at 9:00 in the morning on Tuesday, December 13, 2011. This annual event is held in celebration of local elementary school children decorating the Christmas Tree in the Police Headquarters Lobby. Come listen to holiday music performed by the Davis Bilingual Elementary School Mariachi Group. Watch the kids' faces light up as Santa comes to greet them and see the future designers at work as they light up the lobby with their decorating abilities.

This is a long time Tucson Police Department tradition that helps create a bond between children and police officers. This event is made possible by collaboration between the Tucson Police Officers Association (TPOA), the Fraternal Order of Police (FOP), and the Office of the Chief of Police.

Again, the event will be held Tuesday, December 13, 2011 beginning at 9:00 a.m. Hope to see you there!
